Char Dham Yatra

- The Char Dham Yatra is a revered Hindu pilgrimage in Uttarakhand, India, encompassing four sacred shrines: Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath, and Badrinath.
- Traditionally, this journey involved arduous treks through the Himalayas, but helicopter tours have made it accessible, luxurious, and time-efficient for pilgrims, especially senior citizens, families, and those with limited time.

Char Dham Helicopter Tours

- Char Dham Helicopter Tours offer an aerial alternative to the traditional pilgrimage, allowing devotees to visit all four shrines in a fraction of the time.
- The helicopter option provides convenience, comfort, and breathtaking aerial views of the Garhwal Himalayas, enhancing the spiritual experience.

Key Features

- Accessibility: Ideal for senior citizens, people with disabilities, or those unable to trek.
- Comfort: Luxury stays, swift transfers, and minimal physical strain.
- Time-Saving: Completes the pilgrimage in days instead of weeks.
- Unique Experience: Combines spirituality with adventure through aerial travel.

Full Char Dham Yatra

- Day 1: Arrive in Dehradun, briefing, and overnight stay.
- Day 2: Fly to Kharsali (Yamunotri), visit the temple via pony/palki (6 km trek), overnight stay.
- Day 3: Fly to Harsil (Gangotri), visit the temple (25 km by road), overnight stay.
- Day 4: Fly to Sersi/Phata, shuttle to Kedarnath, overnight stay.
- Day 5: Fly to Badrinath, temple visit, overnight stay.
- Day 6: Return to Dehradun.

Do Dham Yatra

- Covers two shrines, usually Kedarnath and Badrinath.
- Duration: Same-day return (1 day) or 1-4 days with overnight stays.
- Example: Same-day tour from Dehradun to Kedarnath and Badrinath, returning by evening.

Starting Point and Logistics

- Base: Most tours start from Sahastradhara Helipad in Dehradun, though some operators offer pickups from Haridwar or Rishikesh.
- Baggage Limit: Typically 5 kg per passenger due to helicopter weight restrictions. Flight Timings: Operate between 6:00 AM and 2:00 PM, subject to weather and government permissions.
- Booking: Contact Odin Tours - +91 9810594172 / +91 9350371499 – www.odintours.com - Advance booking is recommended, especially during peak seasons.

Best Time to Travel

- Season: May to June (pre-monsoon) and September to October (post-monsoon).
- Why: Pleasant weather, clear skies, and smooth helicopter operations. The yatra is closed from November to April due to heavy snowfall and temple closures.
- Peak Demand: May-June sees a surge, so early booking is advised.

Safety Measures

- Pre-Flight Briefings: Pilots and crew provide instructions on safety and expectations.
- Helicopter Standards: Operators use single-engine choppers with a capacity of 6 passengers, adhering to aviation norms.
- Emergency Support: Basic first aid is available, but personal medications are recommended.

Tips for Pilgrims

- Register for the yatra (mandatory via Uttarakhand Tourism).
- Book helicopters and accommodations in advance.
- Carry woolen clothes for cold nights at high altitudes (e.g., 10°C or less).
- Avoid traveling with infants or pets (not allowed on flights).
- Provide accurate weight and ID details during booking.
